Dear Auburn:

I just wanted to tell you that it did make me feel very bad to have to ask for a competency evaluation for you. You do seem to understand a lot --- but you are also wrong about a lot and not open to seeing reality....

You were not raped but police officers and you do not have a lawsuit against Bedford County in federal court in Philadelphia.

I want to work with you on this case; but you have to work with me. The way you act is just holding you up a whole lot. Even though you have no history with mental health ---- it is very apparent to me that you need to begin at this point in your life.

I heard you went crazy at the jail when they had to search you after court. I know that is not pleasant; but you really do have to be cooperative to avoid more charges being filed against you. I do not want to see you penned up in jail any longer than you have to be; but your own actions holding up your case.

You will be moved to Torrance State Hospital. Please be cooperative --- even though it may be unpleasant or something you do not want to do. I need to make sure you are competent to stand trial and that you can work with your attorney to defend yourself against these charges.

Sincerely,

Mark Zearfaus
